Promoting the Professionalization of Teaching in Asia-Pacific and Africa through the Development and Operationalization of National Teacher Competencies and Teaching Standards Frameworks (Shanghai-FIT)

International Consultant:
Teacher Competencies and Teaching Standards Tasks and Responsibilities
(April 2022 – October 2022)

I. CONTEXT AND OBJECTIVES OF THE PROJECT

UNESCO-IICBA is providing technical support to South Sudan and Sierra Leone in the implementation of a project titled “Promoting the Professionalization of Teaching in Africa and Asia-Pacific through the Development and Operationalization of National Teacher Competencies and Teaching Standards Frameworks”. This project, which is being funded by the Shanghai Municipal Government of the People’s Republic of China, aims at ensuring that qualified teachers enter the profession in the Africa and Asia-Pacific regions, thereby contributing to achieving access to quality education in both regions. The new project is also known as “Shanghai Funds-in-Trust” or “Shanghai-FIT” project in short.

Specifically, the Shanghai-FIT project aims to:

(i) Develop a regional ‘Technical Guidance’ for Developing and Operationalizing National Teacher Competencies and Teaching Standards Frameworks;
(ii) Support the participating countries in developing national teacher competencies and teaching standards frameworks in accordance with the Technical Guidance mentioned in (i) above; and
(iii) Provide capacity-building trainings for teachers, teacher educators and teacher policy makers in the participating countries in line with the newly developed frameworks.

II. PROJECT OUTPUTS

The project expected outputs are:

• Developed Technical Guidance for Developing and Operationalizing National Teacher Competencies and Teaching Standards Frameworks;
• Enhanced and operationalized National Teacher Competencies and Teaching Standards Frameworks;
• Improved teacher training and teaching practices in the beneficiary countries; and
• Strengthened South-South dialogues and cooperation on teacher development and quality education.

III. ROLES OF THE CONSULTANT

The International Teacher Competencies and Teaching Standards Consultant (henceforth referred to as “International Consultant”) will be responsible for the development of a regional Technical Guidance for Developing and Operationalizing National Teacher Competencies and Teaching Standards Framework (henceforth referred to as “Technical Guidance”). This implies the following tasks in particular:

1. For each beneficiary country, carry out national situation analysis of teacher competencies and teaching standards:
   i) Develop a template for conducting national situation analysis (including the scope, methodologies and outlines of the analysis);
   ii) Revise and finalize the template from 1(i) above based on review from UNESCO;
   iii) Conduct national situation analysis based on the pre-set scopes, methodologies and outlines from 1(ii) above;
   iv) Produce national situation analysis report based on results from 1(iii) above;
   v) Revise and finalize the national situation analysis report from 2(iv) above based on UNESCO review and requirements.

2. Carry out mapping of existing regional teacher competencies and teaching standards frameworks:
   i) Develop a template for mapping of existing regional teacher competencies and standards frameworks;
   ii) Revise and finalize the template from 2(i) based on review from UNESCO;
   iii) Conduct desk research, online surveys, and virtual interviews with relevant stakeholder in consultation with National Technical Working Group (NTWG) in each beneficiary country based on agreed upon template from 2(ii) above;
   iv) Produce a comprehensive report of existing regional teacher competencies and teaching standards frameworks based on 2(iii) above;
   v) Revise and finalize the regional teacher competencies and teaching standards frameworks report from 2(iv) above based on UNESCO review and requirements.

3. Prepare a draft regional Technical Guidance based on the results of Tasks 1 and 2 above:
   i) In consultation with UNESCO, develop a template for a regional Technical Guidance – including the outline of the Guidance;
   ii) Draft the regional Technical Guidance based on 3(i) above, and informed by results from tasks 1 and 2 above.
iii) Conduct online multi-stakeholder consultations (including Ministries of Education, teacher unions, teacher educators, and education experts) in the region to collect feedback on the draft Guidance.

iv) Further revise the draft regional Technical Guidance based on feedback from multi-stakeholder consultation, NTWG’s, and UNESCO requirements.
